Psalm 139 [amended] even darkness isn't dark for you and the night is as clear as the day.

Antiphon: Where can I go from your spirit, where can I run from your face

O Lord, you search me and you know me,
you know my resting and my rising, you know my purpose from a distance.
You notice when I walk or when I lie down, all my ways lie open before you.

Before even a word is on my lips, you know it Lord, through and through.

*Behind and before me you encircle me,
your hand ever laid upon me.
Too wonderful for me
is this knowledge, too high beyond my understanding.*

O where can I go from your spirit, where can I run from your face?
If I climb the heavens you are there, if I lie in the earth, you are there.

If I take the wings of the dawn and live at the sea's furthest end, even there, your hand would lead me your right hand, would hold me safe.

If I say - "let the darkness hide me and the light around me be night", it was you who created me who knit me together in my mother's womb.

*I thank you for the wonder of who I am,
and for the wonders of all your creation.*

Already you knew my soul, my body held no secret from you Your eyes have seen all of my actions, they were all of them written in your book;
all of my days were decreed before the first of them came into being.

To me, how mysterious are your thoughts, the number of them cannot be counted.

If I were to try, they are more than the sand on all the seashores, to finish I must be eternal, just like you.

So search me God and know my heart, test me and know my thoughts.
See that I follow not the wrong path and lead me in the path of eternal life.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was
